

(614)

MARCH 2024 | FREE

Created by 614 MEDIA GROUP

The Home Issue

3 LOCAL HOME HIGHLIGHTS

REVOLVING SUSHI ARRIVES

WOMEN'S FOOTBALL WARRIORS

A-Class BnBs

From castles to Amish country escapes, these five unique BnBs offer adventure throughout the Buckeye state

By Molly Hammond
Story Design by Atlas Biro

As winter fades away and the weather starts to warm up, it's the perfect time to plan a spring getaway. Ohio offers a diverse range of bed and breakfast destinations, from the scenic Hocking Hills to the charming towns nestled near Ohio's most popular cities. If you're looking for a unique spring getaway, be sure to check out these five delightful spots that are perfect for families, couples, solo trips and more.

Murphin Ridge Inn

(Adams County, Ohio)

Located in picturesque Adams County, Murphin Ridge Inn (est. 1987) is an endearing bed and breakfast that offers a peaceful Amish Country escape. Spring at Murphin Ridge brings columbine and trillium blooms along the paths of walking trails, and spring greens from the inn's garden make an appearance at Murphin Ridge's in-house restaurant. From woodland cabins to inn rooms with 18th century hand-built furnishings, this getaway has a cozy bed for everyone. Included with your stay is a made-from-scratch breakfast with fresh squeezed orange juice and Amish baked goods. The restaurant provides a three course dinner every evening, with pork tenderloin and ribeye steaks topping the menu. Whether you're looking for a tranquil weekend in the countryside or a trip filled with countless activities, the Murphin Ridge Inn has something for everyone. Spend your days playing singles at the tennis courts or enjoy a glass of Amish country wine by the fire pits. Sitting just minutes away from the inn are some of Amish Country's favorite stores, including Keim Family Market, Miller's Bakery and more.

Glenlaurel

(Hocking Hills)

When it comes to the Hocking Hills, there's no doubt the area is one of Ohio's go-to weekend trip destinations. Settled in Rockbridge, Glenlaurel offers the country's "only luxury Scottish Inn" with seven course candlelight meals, bagpipe music, an upscale links course (think Scottish golf), private hiking trails and in-room spa services. The retreat offers personal cottages, crofts, suites and private rooms. A stay at this retreat will allow you to truly appreciate Scottish-style architecture and furnishings, with stone fireplaces and franklin stoves. At the forefront of this cozy, cultural escape is the dining, where Executive Chef Jean Michel cooks up seven-course meals nightly, from Scottish Salmon to Seafood Du Jour. For the golf enthusiast, the Scottish Links Golf Course provides a look and feel of a Scottish golf course built over 100 years ago.

Castle Inn Bed and Breakfast

(Circleville, Ohio)

Experience a fairytale-like stay at the Castle Inn Bed and Breakfast in Central Ohio. This enchanting castle-inspired inn features suites with intricate woodwork, cozy fireplaces and whirlpool tubs. The castle was built in 1895 and provides the warmth and comfort of a modern-day stay. Once a month, the Castle Inn offers Murder Mystery nights where guests can dress up in 1900s attire for a full sitdown dinner revolving around a whodunit. Home of the world famous Circleville Pumpkin Show, the city of Circleville offers treasures for everyone. Visit Manchester Hill Winery for locally sourced wine and ciders or step into Rosena's for repurposed antiques. Did we mention the entire building is made to look like an ancient castle?

Spitzer House Bed and Breakfast

(Medina, Ohio)

Step back in time at the Spitzer House Bed and Breakfast in the charming town of Medina. This historic Victorian mansion offers elegant guest rooms with antique furnishings and modern amenities. Four guestrooms are available in this northern Ohio getaway, which include luxury linens, bath robes and a full southern-style homemade breakfast every morning. Plenty of activities outside of the bed and breakfast await as well, including historical museums, old school drive-ins, art galleries, wineries and diners.

South Wind Motel

(Columbus, Ohio)

For a more upbeat, vibrant stay that's within the confines of Columbus, the South Wind Motel offers a retro 1950s-inspired experience with a modern twist. The motel's stylishly designed rooms feature mid-century decor and unique artwork. South Wind believes in the comeback of mid-century motels, and after purchasing the building in 2021, the Kelley family renovated and reopened this destination as a trendy getaway in 2022. Rooms include standard queen bed and vintage style suites. Nestled between German Village and the Brewery District, neighborhood attractions include Plank's Bier Garten, Big Room Bar, Schiller Park, Club Diversity and more. Don't forget to bring Fido, as the motel is dog friendly.